

Heart Sky

and the defeat of the Coronaviruses

Rachel sat at home feeling bored.

But she had a secret HQ in her rug.

so she slid down the slide,

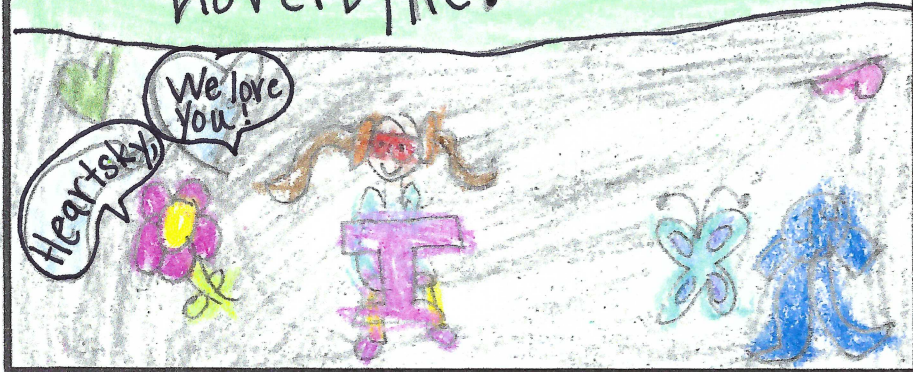

went in the mission control room,

and turned into a superhero!

Then she took the elevator on to her hoverbike.

Off she went to defeat it.

She wondered how to defeat the virus.

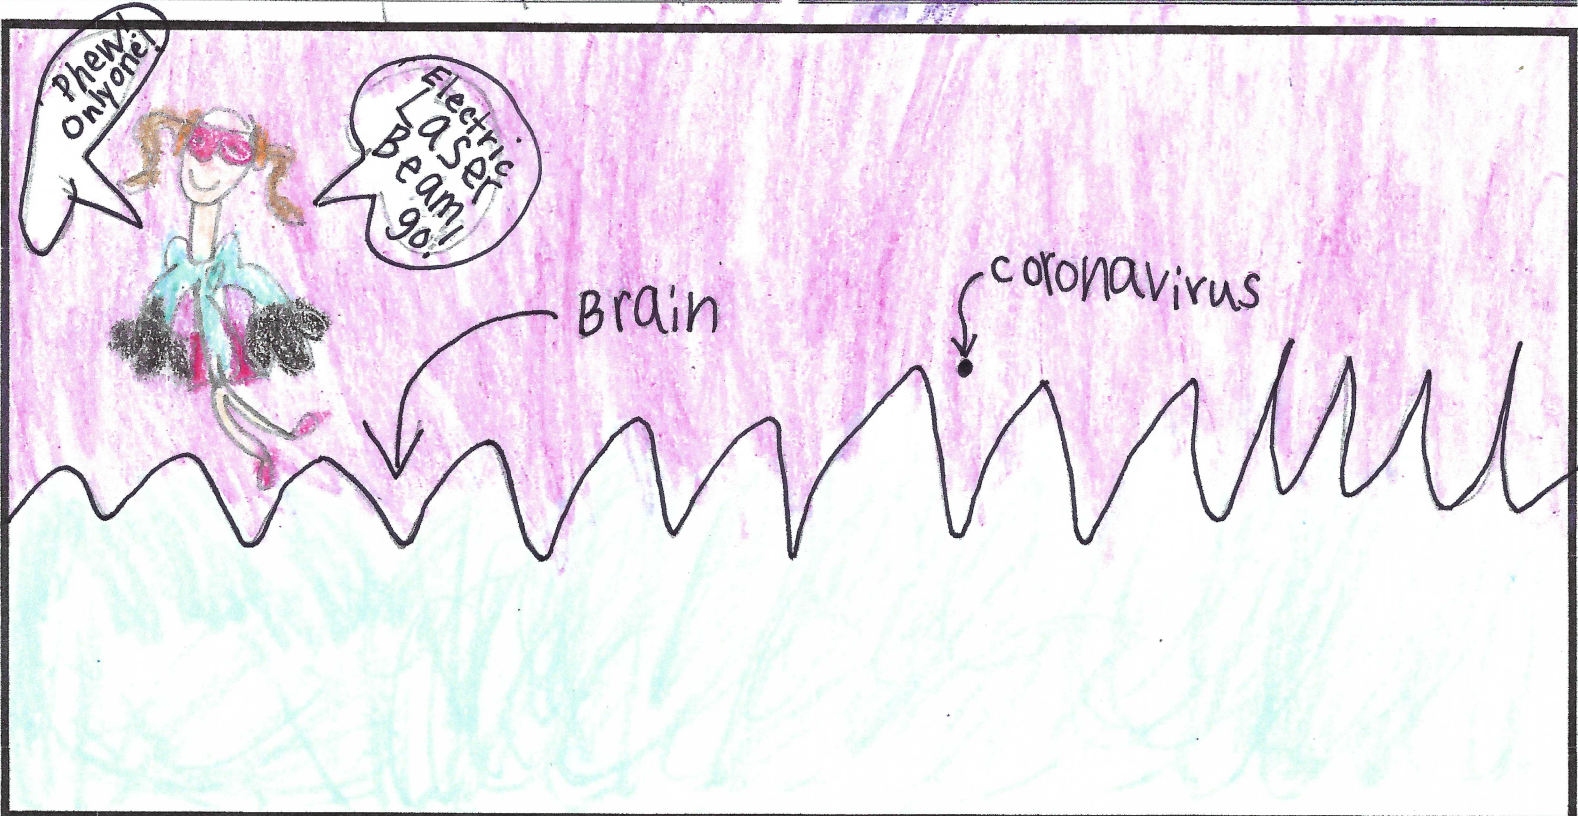

Soon she found a sign of the coronavirus.

It was inside a person
about to make him sick!

Heartsky knew she had to act fast so she shrunk
with her shrink button and went in the person's ear!

Heartsky had defeated the Coronavirus!

Quickly, she went to tell the mayor.

The mayor told everyone else.

Before anyone went back, there was a party in honor of Heartsky!

When Heartsky got home, she turned back into Rachel.

The next day, there was a welcome party! The coronavirus never returned.

Welcome Back to School!
